PART I

Day 3

HUMBOLDT BRONCOS BUS CRASH

On Friday, April 6th, the Saskatchewan junior hockey team, Humboldt Broncos, were en route to a playoff hockey game when the bus and a tractor-trailer collided in rural Saskatchewan. Of the 29 people aboard the bus, 15 people passed away including the coach, assistant coach, bus driver, team announcer, stats expert, and 10 players aged 16 to 21 years old. Our thoughts and deepest condolences go out to all who have been impacted by this horrific tragedy. Tomorrow "Wear a Sport Jersey" or wear green in support of the family and friends of the Humboldt Broncos bus crash victims.
